While anyone can take time to answer these questions individually, these questions are best discussed in a group, or with another person! Not in a group yet? Please reach out to us via email:

DISCUSS | Take a few minutes to discuss the sermon you heard on Matthew 26:36-39 & John 17:1-4 by answering these questions:

- If you had to explain the main point of the sermon to someone who was not there, what would you say?
- Which points from the sermon connected with you the most? Why?

PRAY | Take a moment to pray out loud as a group. Ask the Holy Spirit to lead the discussion and teach you both individually and collectively from the passage you are about to read.

READ | Read Matthew 26:36-39 & John 17:1-4 out loud with your group.

ASK | Answer these questions as a group:

- What did you like about this passage?
- What did you find challenging or hard to understand?

READ | Now have someone else read Matthew 26:36-39 & John 17:1-4 a second time.

ASK | Answer these questions as a group:

- What can we learn about Jesus from this passage? What do we learn about the Holy Spirit?
- What things do you struggle with when you read this passage?
- What promises does Jesus make in this passage?
- How are you living out Jesus' teaching here in this passage?
- How do you refer to God when you pray?
- What posture do you take when you pray? (Jesus looked up to Heaven...)

APPLY | Take a few minutes to write down two or three steps to take this week to put this text into action. Share your steps with your group.

- Take some time to do some soul-searching. What are some areas, spaces in your life that you need to invite the Holy Spirit into? Where do you need to invite some others to walk beside you? What fears, frustrations, anxiousness do you need to TRANSFER onto God instead of those around you? Write them out, share them with someone else if appropriate.
